Author, Amy Bellamy, To Visit

Amy Bellamy will visit the Rockport library on July 16th at 6:30 pm to promote and sign copies of her book, Waverly: A Novel. Amy is a Middle School teacher from Owensboro, KY. Inspired by true events, the book takes place in Waverly, a fictional town based on the town of Owensboro. The book is historical fiction/mystery. In the novel, Sarah Harper, a young law student, gets caught up in a mystery that occurred 70 years earlier in her hometown of Waverly, including a horrific murder and the last public execution ever to take place on American soil. This event is open to the public and all are encouraged to attend.

Recipe Swap

Join us at Richland the first Thursday of every month at 5 pm for Recipe Swap. The next meeting will be held on July 11th due to the Library being closed on July 4th. July's theme is Picnic or Patriotic Foods. To participate, please bring a food dish along with the recipe to share with others. All are welcome! Contact Charlynn at 812-359-4146 for more information.
