BOOKMARK CONTEST WINNERS

Congratulations to the 2018 SCPL National Library Week bookmark contest winners!!! With over 500 entries it was difficult to narrow it down, but our judges deliberated and chose some great winners! SCPL would like to thank everyone who submitted a bookmark; we loved all the great designs! Patrons may pick up any of these award winning bookmarks at any of our four locations this summer.

BICENTENNIAL EVENTS

Spencer County and the city of Rockport are turning 200!!! Bicentennial festivities will commence on June 1 and continue through June 9. That's nine days of fun activities celebrating Spencer County and Rockport, and one of those days is dedicated to libraries! Monday, June 4 will celebrate Spencer County public libraries (Spencer County Public Library system and Lincoln Heritage Public Library system). So take a walk down memory lane with SCPL staff while we celebrate 200 years of our community. The SCPL Main Library—Rockport location will show the Clayton Spurlock videos and other local historical videos in the periodical area on the upper level all day. Then, later in the afternoon the community is invited to join us for old-fashioned games and crafts!

MURAL PROJECT CONTINUES

The mural project that began during National Library Week continues. If you were unable to participate in the mural project in April, you still have time to purchase leaves or stepping stones. Patrons of any age may make a donation of $25.00 to “own” a leaf and have their name painted on it by Miss Jenny or $50.00 to “own” a book stepping-stone and title the book with their name attached, example: Kayla’s Adventures Through Wonderland by Kayla Morris. Patrons may also still bid on a “Big Book.” The silent auction still continues for available big rectangle “books” supporting the column trees. Bidding starts at $100.00 and the highest bidders will have their name and date on donation included on the “book.”

For more information regarding the mural project please contact Sherri, Jenny, or Kayla at the Main Library—Rockport, 812-649-4866.
